SHADOWS.

When I see the long wild briers
Waving in the wind like fires,
See the green skirts of the maples
Barred with scarlet and with gold,
See the sunflower, heavy-hearted,
Shadows then from days departed
Come and with their tender trembles
Wrap my bosom fold on fold.

I can hear sweet invitations
Through the sobbing, sad vibrations
Of the winds that follow, follow,
As from self I seek to fly—
Come up hither! Come up hither!
Leave the rough and rainy weather!
Come up where the royal roses
Never fade and never die!

'Twas when May was blushing, blooming,
Brown bees, bluebirds, singing, humming,
That we built and walled our chamber
With the emrald of the leaves;
Made our bed of yellow mosses,
Soft as pile of silken flosses,
Dreamed our dreams in dewy brightness
Radiant like the morns and eves.

And it was when woods were gleaming,
And when clouds were wildly streaming
Gray and umber, white and amber,
Careening in the north wind's breath,
That my little rose mouthed blossom
Fell and faided on my bosom,
Cankered by the coming coldness,
Blighted by the frosts of death.

Therefore when I see the shadows.
Drifting in across the meadows,
See the troup of summer wild birds
Flying from us, cloud on cloud,
Memory with that May-time lingers.
And I seem to feel the fingers
Of my lost and lovely darling
Wrap my heart up in her shroud.

THE THIRD PARTY MOVEMENT.

Partisans and whiskyites, and we may add, timid temperance men, charge the advocates of a third party movement with a thoughtlessness and fanaticism, and they declare that the movement is premature and must result disastrously to the temperance cause. They say, if the enactment of a prohibitory law should be forced now, public sentiment would not sustain it, and consequently, it would be a dead letter on the statute book. This is simply no argument at all against the third party movement; but it is, in reality, in its favor. If our law-makers were elected upon issues foreign to that of temperance, or prohibition, and they were pressed by prohibitionists to enact a general prohibitory law, public sentiment as it exists at present, might not sustain it. But on the other hand, if we have an organized temperance political party, with prohibition a prominent or principal plank, it is not to be supposed that a majority of the prohibitionists would be elected to the legislature until a public sentiment prevailed that would sustain a prohibitory law. Thus it will be seen that we do not propose to act rashly and attempt to force prohibition upon an unwilling people. A public sentiment must be created that will drive the dramshop and its attendant curse—intemperance, from the land. But how is that to be done? By sitting supinely and waiting for a spontaneous growth of this desirable change in the public mind? or shall we trust to the experience of the past forty years has proven to be a failure—moral suasion, alone?

It is safe to trust public sentiment on any question upon which the people are properly educated. On the subject of dram drinking and dram-selling, the people are not well informed. The majority of the people do not know that dram-selling and dram-drinking are crimes—that the liquor traffic is a murderous business, and as such should be restrained instead of sanctioned by law.

The agitation and discussion which a political contest on this question will necessarily produce, will inform the public mind so that the people can see the absolute wickedness and criminality of the accursed traffic. They will soon learn that the liquor traffic is a political institution—that it exists by legal enactments, and that it can only be remedied by the same.—Temperance Vindicator.

A TEMPERANCE SKETCH.

Stop!"

I never, since a boy, liked to yield to coercion. I was whipped cruelly at school once, because the master wanted to make me kiss a girl for punishment, before all the school, because I slipped a little boy's love-letter into her hand, and I wouldn't obey him.

But when on the outskirts of the city, a harsh voice uttered the word which heads this story, and in the cold, wintry starlight, I saw something very like a pistol raised on a dead level with my breast very brief reflection uttered the words within me and I stopped.

"I don't want your life, but I must have money," said a man, unshaven and unshorn, hair and beard matted, and literally in rags, with fierce glaring eyes looking wildly on me.

"Sir,' said I, 'if you had only been a little sooner you could have had some money. I have only car fare now, to get down to Lovejoy's, for nearly all I had in my pockets I have given to help a poor family that was brought to my notice.

"You wear gold on your breast.—Give me that. Come, no trifling."

"These are emblems of temperance orders to which I belong. I dislike to part with them, for they are gifts that I value."

'Temperance? Are you a temperance man?'

'I am.'

'What will temperance do for me? Will it keep me from starving? Will it keep me out of jail?'

"Yes, if you will try it. You do not seem all bad, or you would have used your pistol instead of your tongue. Now come down town with me, and let me see if I can not help you."

"Yes—you'll give me up to the first policeman you meet!'

"On my honor as a man—no! I will give you food, reason with you and see is you cannot find some better life yet. If you will let me—I will be your friend!'

'Friend! Oh, Heaven! a friend! I who have ruined myself, brought my family to starvation —and at last taken to the highway. I have a friend!' and he laughed like a maniac.

'Yes,' said I, 'there is no one with life yet in him that has not a friend in Him who died for us all. And should we erring mortals be less than He in readiness to befriend the needy? Come you are safe. I have tried to do one good act to-night—let me try to add another to the list?'

"Take that."

He handed me his pistol, and I saw tears in his eyes.

'Take that. I would not have used it, at any rate. This is my first attempt at such work. After a three week's spree I went there and looked in. It was when darkness was just shutting down on daylight; and I saw that they were starving. I rushed away, went where I had spent my last cent for drink, and took this pistol from behind the bar, and made up my mind to rob.'

He pointed as he spoke to a hovel on a vacant lot not far off.

'What!' I cried, 'is your name Elbert Moneton?'

'Yes.'

'Then it is from your family that I came. There is food and fuel in your home now, and to-morrow kind people will visit your wife and little ones with more substantial relief. Come back with me and see them, for they know nothing of this and they shall not."

"Merciful Heavens! And I was about to rob you! Oh, do not let my poor wife know how low I have fallen—what I was about to do.'

'I will not.'

We went back, and the drunkard—the almost madman—entered the hovel house to which his family had been brought from affluence by his own mad folly and the use of strong drink. His wife and children, gaunt and pale with long suffering, were eating by the light of a blazing fire.

"Husband—Father!"

These glad words came even from the lips of those whom he had neglected, abused.

He rushed forward, weeping like a child, and embraced them.

It was a scene I cannot picture. I will not try. I stood and cried too—I was so happy.

That man has not tasted strong drink since. His name is at the bottom of a pledge never to do so. He works daily, with returning strength in his arms and hope in his heart. The principle of Faith, Hope, and Charity has been exemplified in his case, and "one more unfortunate" lifts up his voice in thankfulness to God that he is saved from a drunkard's shame and a drunkard's grave.

Reader, thousands are on the verge—reach out your hand and save, and Heaven will bless and help you! There is work all around you. Do it—do it.—

STERNE ON DRINKING.—"I never drink; I cannot afford it; it costs me three days: the first in sinning, the second in suffering, and the third in repenting."

BIBLE IN SCHOOLS.—It is known throughout the country that the question of having the bible read in common schools has been the source of a vast amount of controversy among the people of Cincinnati. Some months ago the school board voted that bible reading should not be required in the schools of that city. The question came before the court, placed there by the bible party, who asked that the decision of the school board be revoked. There are three judges who took the question under advisement, after hearing it argued at length by some of the ablest and most learned counsel of that city. The court asked time to arrive at a decision, and after some two months reflection two of them have decided with the bible party—the other member dissenting. Whether this decision is final or not time will disclose. The great grand jury of the people may confirm or overrule it.

For want of room the following articles did not appear last week.

On the 21st of December the day was the shortest of the year, being 8 hours and 51 minutes in length—to-day, March 2d, is 11 hours and 17 minutes, having increased 2 hours and 26 minutes, in this latitude. To ascertain the length of a day add 12 to the time of the sun's setting, and from the sum subtract the time of rising, which will indicate the length of the day. For the length of the night subtract the time of the sun's setting from 12, and add to the remainder the time of rising next morning. To-day the sun sets at 5-52—12 added to this makes 17-52. Subtract the time of rising, 6-35, and the result is 11 hours and 17 minutes. It may be well to remember this simple rule. To any one who feels interested in these things we will say that by calling at this office they can have an ingeniously constructed calendar, by which the day of the week can be ascertained when the day and month of any particular year are given.

We take several papers at this office. Some of them have queer names. A monthly quarto, printed in English and German, came to us the other day, called the Zymotechnic News.—Its ostensible or professed object is to instruct people how to make all sorts of liquors for the manufacture of drunkards. We have no use for it. The liquor we use is distilled through the alembec of nature—God's only beverage, and is free to all. The big name designating this little paper signifies fermentation, physically: in a medical sense it indicates disease. Rather significant.

Orthepathic Journal.—This compound of syllables is not found in Webster's unabridged, or big dictionary—not all at once—it may be there in sections. But from a reading of the paper we infer that the editor and publisher, J. Stoltz, M. D., of Dayton, is endeavoring to instruct his readers the way to obtain and secure good health—a very commendable object, in which we hope he may be successful.

The Am. Ed. Monthly.—There is no difficulty in understanding what this means. Its plain name and excellent contents are a warrant of the high aims which the editors and publishers have in view—that of increasing practical knowledge. J. W. Schermerhorn & Co., N. Y.

The Riverside for March is out. This most beautiful of all the juvenile monthlies is equal to any of its predecessors. No wonder its patrons give it a cordial welcome, Hurd & Houghton, N. Y.

The Ventilator, is the name of a new paper just commenced at Orville by Mr. John Wolbach. It is a spirited and vigorous local paper, and deserves the patronage of the vicinity in which it is located.

ANOTHER VICTIM, ALMOST.—Friday morning, the 18th ult. was rough and cold. A gentleman coming on foot from near Navarre saw a woman lying in the snow by the side of the road, not far from the cemetery, near where another woman was found frozen to death a few weeks ago. The man hurried up town as fast as he could walk, informed marshal Seaman of the case, and they both promptly went to where the woman was. Just previous to their arrival one of our citizens going south assisted in carrying her to a farm house near by. The family kindly cared for her, the marshal taking charge of the case. When first carried into the house and for some time after, so far gone was the victim that she was unable to speak. Being warmed up consciousness and speech were restored, and she was found to be a woman well known among certain classes here by the name of Pinkey, and was evidently under the influence of liquor. The question is, which of the forty grogshops of Massillon made this woman drunk so that she came near losing her life? But she is not their first victim.

The Lady's Friend.—A beautiful steel engraving of Windsor Castle, the residence of Queen Victoria, is the opening embellishment of the March number of this Queen of Monthlies. Then we have a large plate of colored fashions, followed by music and good reading. Published by Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut st., Philadelphia. Price $2,50 per year. The Lady's Friend and Saturday Evening Post $4.

The Little Corporal for March is a rich number. We do not see how it can possibly be improved, but the publishers promise great improvements during the year. It is a beautiful juvenile Magazine. $1 a year. Issued at Chicago, Ill., by Alfred L. Sewell & Co.

Chas. W. Millen, Cashier of Norwalk National bank, says: 'I have used Dr. Whittlesey's Vegetable Dyspepsia Cure in my family for the past year, and find it an excellent remedy.'

R. P. Hall & Co., Nassau, N. H., proprietors of Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewew, publish a teatise on the hair, which they will send free to any one on application This is a valuable little book, send for it.

HOME TESTIMONY.

Mt. Gilead, Morrow Co., O. March, 1870.

DR. C. W. ROBACK—Dear Sir: I have been afflicted during the last six years with general debility—no particular disease, but general prostration. I procured of your agent here, Mr. Enos Miles; some of your Scandinavian blood purifier and blood pills, and have been using them during the last four months in this manner: I take the purifier in the morning, and when I feel worse than usual one pill at night, and am in better health at present than for the last six years. I have used various medicines in that time, all to no purpose. I now use the pills in my family, and I think they are the best family medicine I ever used. 4t W. COOPER.

A profuse and many times excessively offensive discharge from the nose with stopping of the nose at times, impairment of the sense of smell and taste, watering or weak eyes, impaired hearing, irregular appetite, occasional nausea, pressure and pain over the eyes, and at times in the back of the head, occasional chilly sensations, cold feet, and a feeling of lassitude and debility are symptoms which are common to catarrh, yet all of them are not present in every case Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures catarrh in its worst forms and stages. A SHORT TEMPERANCE STORY.

BY A. R.

"Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink, that putteth the bottle to him, and maketh him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness."—Habakkuk, 2d, chapter 15th.

Dearly beloved we will weigh—

1st. The woe denounced.

2d. The particular sin calling for it.

3d. The consequences flowing therefrom making it exceedingly sinful.

I. The woe denounced—its source and its nature.

The source of woe is from God, who in the beginning said: "The soul that sinneth it shall die." The Omniscient alone can duly weigh the sin of debauchery in its malicious nature, and the destructive consequences, as extending through all the ramifications of human relationship, and the cycles of time, until the last day, when the Judge Eternal shall judge mankind for their deeds, and the issues thereof, good or evil.

The nature of woe. It is, first, eternal, like the Supreme Legislator, whose laws have been broken. It is, secondly, most fearful. Moses in the Old Testament, declares: "For the Lord thy God is a consuming fire, even a jealous God;" and St. Paul, in the New Testament confirms it: "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. For our God is a consuming fire."

II. The particular sin calling for this eternal woe—"giving our neighbor drink." Let us, sit, dearly beloved, this 'giving,' and know how many sorts and kinds there are, both direct and indirect:

1st. Making intoxicating liquors, not as an agent in mechanical operations, and for medicinal use, but for habitual potation.

2d. Selling the same as a beverage especially when adulterated.

3d. Giving the same to our fellow-citizens as a bribe for their suffrages.

4th. The vulgar custom of carrying bottles in the pockets, saddle-bags, &c., and offering their contents to their fellow travelers, or others as a mark of friendly feeling—"putteth thy bottle to him and maketh him drunken also."

III. The consequences flowing therefrom—"that thou mayest look on their nakedness." Noah was the first drunken man after the deluge, and exposed his nakedness to his irreverent son Ham, who, although the subject of God's special curse upon earth cannot be charged with putting the bottle to his father, and making him drunk, and is less guilty than he that doeth so to his neighbor, and then, looketh upon his nakedness, and maketh merry with his antic tricks and disgusting profanity, obscenity, and vile uncleanness of the spewing drunkard.'

"Nakedness." Dearly beloved, let us more particularly analyze this comprehensive term of Holy Writ. "Naked we came into the world, and naked we go out." True as to our bodies, but how will it be with our souls? Will they go to the bar of God as they were given—spotless as a sheet of white paper, pure as the drifted snow? Nay, verily, but clothed upon with all the pollution of our sins, like the shirt of Nessus. Then, dearly beloved, by the way of application, whenever you shudder at the nakedness of the poor inebriate—first, as deprived of reason: second as lost to shame; third, as given up to all beastiality; and lastly, as a miserable, homeless, shiftless, abandoned outcast in this world, and in the next as damned to all eternity—be ye also alarmed, and start aghast at the eternal, fearful soul-destroying woe denounced by God's ancient prophet against the more prosperous, and far more sinful purveyor or procurer, who provided the inebriate with the means of gratifying his unhallowed thirst, at the expense of estate, family, body and soul, whether for filthy lucre, or political preferment, or for social bility! There are no gradations in the woe denounced, however men may fondle and hug the foolish delusion of any excuse or extenuation whatever of the sin.

The maker, the seller, and the apparent liberal giver of strong drink, must, in that terrible day which will try all the souls that God has created, or will create, expiate by everlasting woe his murderous, rankling sin!

Think, O, in time; in eternity it will be too late. So mote it be.

INSTINCT IN VEGETABLES.

The root constitutes the plant's mouth. It terminates in a little sponge. The sponge drinks up the moisture from the surrounding earth. A simple experiment proves that whatever an amputated branch may do for an hour, the mouth of the plant is necessary to its permanent vitality. Two plants are placed for this purpose, side by side, in contiguous vessels. The roots of the one are in water or moist and fruitful earth, while a layer of dry sand above surrounds the stem. It flourishes. The roots of the second are in dry sand, while the water or fruitful earth surrounds its stem. It dies. Indeed one need not try such experiments. Nature has demonstrations quite as striking. Every boy has seen in the woods the roots of some tree, planted by the birds or the winds in the crevices of a rock, wandering down the sides of the great boulder in search of nourishment. Dr. Davy tells of a cave in which a horsechestnut, growing on a flat stone, sent out its roots thus to forage for food. They passed seven feet up a contiguous wall, turned at the top, and passing down seven feet on the other side, found the needed nourishment there, which their own barren home denied them. Thus closely does the instinct of vegetation imitate the wisdom of the animate creation. In another instance, narrated by Malherbe, an acacia threw its roots across a hollow of sixty-six feet, to find its labors rewarded by the discovery of a well of water in which they plunged, and from which they drew the food it so much needed. What strange sense drew them toward the water rather than toward the rock or the sand?

A yet more singular instance of this search for food is narrated by Wallace in his 'Malay Archipelago."

A seed had been dropped by one of nature's husbandmen, a bird, in the decaying trunk of an old tree. It sprouted, put forth roots, branches, a little stem. But its roots in vain sought nourishment at the breast of its dying foster-mother. At length, abandoning all hope of support from her; they pushed out from their home to seek a living. They dropped to the ground, a distance of sixty or seventy feet, and fastened here, succeeded in securing an independent livelihood. As time passed on the old trunk died, disappeared. The new tree remained suspended, as it were, in mid air, the roots proceeding downward and the branches upward from a point about equidistant from the two.

It is not thus alone that the root exhibits its intelligence. It displays equal sagacity in selecting from the soil only those elements which its own plant requires. Sometimes it errs, and drinks in a deadly poison. But its native instinct is more rarely at fault than the supposed superior wisdom of man. Trees rarely eat unwisely. They are never guilty of gluttony.

Yet if the root be the principal feeder of the plant, the chief source of supply for its marvelous circulation, it does not alone fulfill this office. The leaves also absorb moisture from the air. 'In the burning days of summer,' says M. Pouchet, 'I have found carpets of ice plants on the most arid rocks in Greece. Although it had not rained for a month, these plants displayed a remarkable freshness, and their leafage was none the less covered with a coating of icicles."—LYMAN ABBOTT, in Harper's Magazine for March.

The great natural curiosity known as Sunken lake, is situated in the Cascade mountains, about seventy-five miles northeast of Jacksonville, Oregon. The walls are two thousand feet high, and almost perpendicular, running down into the water and leaving no beach. The depth is unknown; the surface is smooth and unruffled, and lies so far below the surface of the mountain that the air currents do not affect it.

A New Orleans woman used kerosene to kindle a fire with, and now she is gone where the grape vine chisbeth, and her husband is looking for a woman just her size to wear out her calico dress, &c.

DON'T MIND ENEMIES.

Have you enemies? Go straight on, and mind them not. If they block up your path, walk round them and do your duty regardless of their spite. A man who has no enemies is seldom good for anything, he is made of that kind of material which is so easily worked that every one has a hand in it. A sterling character—one who thinks for himself, and speaks what he thinks—is always sure to have enemies. They are as necessary to him as fresh air; they keep him alive and active. A celebrated character who was surrounded by enemies, used to remark: 'They are sparks which if you do not blow, will go out of themselves.' Let this be your feeling while endeavoring to live down the scandal of those who are bitter against you If you stop to dispute, you do but as they desire, and open the way for more abuse. Let the poor fellow talk; there will be a reaction if you perform but your duty.

RUINS IN CHINA.—The ruins which have been discovered in Cambodia, Cochin China, says the Revue Coloniale et Maritime, proves that the inhabitants must at one time have been highly civilized as they are now degraded. Remains of sculpture have been discovered rivaling those produced in Greece in its best days. Well built bridges have been discovered in many parts, and the expedition conducted by M. de Lagree found remains of the same and other constructions as far as fifteenth degree of north latitude. So extensive and numerous are these remains that they are considered to prove beyond dispute that at the time when they were built the country must have been densely populated by people rich and prosperous to a high degree; indeed, there is positive evidence of the fact in the writings of a Chinese traveler, who speaks with warm admiration concerning the lavish manner in which gold was employed in the decorations of their monuments.

So rapid is their way of doing business in Chicago, that when a man makes up his mind to reform (rather a tough job), it becomes important to fix him promptly. It is therefore, necessary at times, to cut a hole in the ice and perform the solemn ceremony of baptism. On one of these occasions a convert who had felt the necessity of that rite, was immersed, and on coming out was asked by the minister, 'How do you feel now, brother?' 'Better,' was the reply; 'put me in again.' The request was complied with, and after a second dip, the question was repeated, 'How do you feel now?' 'Better! better!' was the response, in a solemn tone of voice—'the devil may go to grass now.'

Such is the plucky spirit of the Chicago convert!

MAN AND WOMAN.

The following passage is from Henry's Commentary on the Bible:

Adam was first formed, then Eve; and she was made from man, and for man, all of which are urged as reasons for humility and modesty, silence and submissiveness of that sex in general, and particularly the subjection and reverence which wives owe to their husbands. Yet man being made the last of creation as the best and most excellent of all, Eve's being made after Adam, out of him, puts an honor upon that sex, as the glory of man. If a man is the head she is the crown; a crown, to her husband, the crown of visible creation. The man was dust refined, but the woman was doubly refined; one remove from earth.

Woman was made of a rib out of the side of Adam; not made out of his head, to top him; nor of his feet to be trampled upon by him; but out of his side, to be equal with him; under his arm to be protected; and near his heart to be loved.

The advice of a Pennsylvania suicide to his brother was: 'Willie, don't go with the fellows who have more money to spend than you have.'

'How is it, my dear,' inquired a school mistress of a little girl, 'that you do not understand this simple thing?' 'I no not know, indeed,' she answered with a perplexed look; 'but I sometimes think I have so many things to learn that I have no time to understand.

Under the laws of Ohio, whoever takes up an estray animal—sheep, cow, ox mule, &c., is required, within three days, to make an accurate description of such animal, its marks, probable age, &c., furnish a copy to the township clerk; within five days, he is to advertise it in three public places in the township; if any other kinds than hogs or sheep, he is, within five days to send a similar description to the county clerk.

The following advertisement appears in a Maine paper: 'A fine sofa for sale by a young man with a spring back upholstered in the finest manner.'

Two Irishmen were talking about the recent cold weather, especially the cool evenings and mornings. Pat said he was sleeping one night with nothing but a shirt to his back, and as there was no more covering in the room he pulled off his only garment and spread it over him. He says he felt warmer.

A backwoodsman relates that the musketoes in his vicinity are so thirsty for blood that he saw several of them suck a blood pudding dry.

The two Chinese theaters in San Francisco got into difficulty. The Hung Chien Guen brought out a play six months long which took the patronage of the See Yup, as the Chinese wanted to see it out. The latter then raise a riot, and demolished part of the Hung Chien Guen.

GOD IN THE CONSTITUTION.

Some twelve months or more ago this question was agitated by a portion of the religious people. It is now again brought forward in a call signed by a number of ex-governors, an array of L. L. D's, D. D's, Revs, and other individuals. A national convention begins to morrow, at Pittsburg, to which all who feel interested are invited to come together and participate.

This call assumes that it is a great wrong that the words, God, Jesus Christ and an acknowledgment of the Christain religion are not in the United States constitution. It may be that the personages above named are dissatisfied with notseeing their names in print in our national constitution—that is, according to the views of many good people—but there is yet a very large class who cannot see it in that light. If our people, as a nation, will all do that they should,as good,conscientious people, toward each other, and to the human race everywhere, we may set it down as certain that we shall have no difficulties to settle, and no animosities to reconcile with the Creator of us all, even if we fail to parade his name in the elementary law of the land. For our sins as a nation in regard to slavery He had a controversy with us, and until works meet for repentance were performed he ceased not to make the sin a source of discontent, trouble, which finally culminated in terrible war. As a nation He has yet farther controversy with us in regard to the sin of intemperance, and if we fail to repent of this great evil other evils will come upon us which will prove that his displeasure is not removed or his hatred of wrong abated. Obey the just and wholesome laws of our Creator. by carrying out the precept of doing as we would be done by, and we shall have no trouble with him.

If this proposed amendment to the constitution is inherently right, and if a wrong is tolerated until it is adopted, then it will come some day; but to a large portion of the American people it looks decidedly like making our fundamental law the entering wedge of sectarian measures, which when one started will not stop until some party which may assume control will not be satisfied until we will have established a national religion. The American people are not yet ready for that.

Territorially Texas is an immense state embracing an area of 247,356 square miles, more than six times as large as Ohio. A proposition has been introduced into one branch of congress to divide it into three states, but it will be some time before that comes about. Texas was begotten by the slave power to spread that despotism, but freedom now has control.

Two women, who have accumulated a considerable amount of money, the papers inform us, have gone into the Wall street broker business. Why should not they do so? The question here is, whether they will be called bulls or bears.

The Universalists of Ohio have for some time been on the lookout for a suitable location for a college, and the Beacon of last week says they have decided to locate it in Akron. This is another evidence of the enterprise of that wide awake city.

In the south the work of education seems to be going on rapidly, especially among the colored people. They are anxious for improvement, and from reports by teachers, superintendents and other observers their children are making excellent progress. The white people of that region must keep wide awake or the colored people will get ahead of them.

A small party of his friends, on last Saturday evening, at Washington, nominated Gen. Butler for the presidency.

On the 26th ult., six passenger cars fell off a precipice, on the Mississippi Central road, some forty feet, smashing every car, killing twenty-three persons and a large number were severely injured.

The English government has taken the telegraph lines under control, in addition to the postoffice. After an experiment of two weeks some say it is a failure, while others claim it a success.

The New York Herald is a daily of unusual enterprise, issuing seven papers every week, not stopping for Sunday. For many months its Monday issue contains a brief of a large number of the Sunday sermons of that city, and sometimes many other places. Last Monday's date gives an interesting summary of about thirty sermons, and in this respect beats any religious paper in the country. All creeds thus have a hearing in this widely circulated paper.

It was thought by some a few days ago that Mr. Revels, the newly chosen colored senator for Mississippi to the U. S. Senate, that that body would be slow about admitting him to a seat; but Saturday's papers inform us that the question is set at rest by his admission. One of the chief judges in South Carolina is a negro, and in several of the southern legislatures there are black senators and representatives. It is singular to think of—ten years ago these colored senators and other prominent officers, had no rights which white men were bound to respect—now they are among the law makers and law dispensers of the land. The right ever comes upermost.

FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT.

At a meeting of a number of the citizens of Perry township held in the colored church of this place on the first inst., the meeting was organized by appointing Wm. F. Holliday, president, Henry Reed, vice president, and Robert Pinn, secretary.

A circular was read, sent from a committee of Franklin county, the purport of which is to inquire as to the number of colored voters in Stark, and how they are expected to vote.

A committee of eight was appointed to canvass Massillon and vicinity in order to raise means to defray the incidental expenses of a jollification, speakers &c., and the following were named: Edward Rawles, Wm. Pinn, J. J. Walls, Robert Pinn, Charles Bowman, Mr. Hammers, Mr. Leet and Henry Reed.

A corresponding committee was appointed consisting of Robert Pinn and Henry Reed, to communicate with all the colored people of the county on the proposed convention.

An executive committee of three was named who are to perform all the duties devolving in such appointees consisting of Wm. Pinn, Henry Reed and Robert Pinn. It is part of their duty to ascertain the number of colored people in this county, and how they propose to vote.

Moved and carried that the funds raised by the finance committee be placed in the First National Bank, subject to the order of the executive committee. Adjourned sine die.

MARRIED—On the 18th ult., by Rev. R. L. Williams, Mr. JAMES BUCHANAN and Miss JENNETT FORREST, all of Stark county.

On the 22d ult., by the same, Mr. AMASA BAILEY and Miss ELEANOR JONES, all of Massillon.

Notice

Is hereby given that Mrs. Cynthia Davis wife of the late John Davis, deceased, late of Stark county has been appointed administratrix of the estate of said deceased.

Will all those afflicted with cough or consumption read the following and learn the value of

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM.

WHAT THE DOCTOR'S SAY:

Amos Woolly, M. D. of Kosciusko county, Indiana, says: For three years past I have used Allen's Lung Balsam extensevely in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung diseases in use.

Isaac R. Doran, M. D. of Logan Co., Ohio, says: Allen's Lung Balsam not only sells rapidly, but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it, and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice, and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known.

Dr. Lloyd, of Ohio, surgeon in the army during the war, from exposure contracted consumption. He says: I have no hesitation in saying that it was by the use of your Lung Balsam that I am now alive and enjoying health.

Dr. Fletcher, of Missouri, says: I recommend your Balsam in preference to any other medicine for coughs, and gives satisfaction.

Allen's Lung Balsam is the remedy to cure all Lung and Throat difficulties; it should be thoroughly tested before using any other balsam. It will cure when all others fail Directions accompany each bottle. J. N. HARRIS & Co., sole proprietor, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Smoking tobacco is an excellent article of granulated Virginia.

Wherever introduced it is admired.

It is put up in handsome muslin bags, in which orders for meerschaum pipes are daily packed.

Lorillard's Yacht Club

smoking tobacco has no superior; being denicotinized, it cannot injure nerveless constitutions, or people of sedentary habits.

It is very aromatic, mild, and light in weight—hence it will last much longer than others; nor does it burn or sting the tongue, or leave a disagreeable after taste.

Orders for genuine, elegantly carved meerschaum pipes, silver mounted, and packed in neat leather pocket cases, are placed in the Yacht Club brand daily.

CAHOON'S

Patent Rroadcast Seed Sower,

FOR SOWING

Wheat, Oats, Hemp, Barley, Rye, Buckwheat, Grass Seed, Rice, Flax, &c.

The Hand Machine Costs only $10.

And sows from four to eight acres per hour at a common walking gait, throwing out wheat about forty feet wide.

The Horse Power Machine Costs Only $50

And at the usual walking gait of a horse, sows from ten to fifteen acres per hour By changing the discharger this machine sows Guano, Plaster, Lime, &c.

The hand machine, at a common walking gait, sows from four to eight acres per hour. The acknowledged superiority of these machines over all others has already placed them in the front rank of labor saving agricultural implements. A saving of four fifths of the labor, and one third of the seed used in hand sowing, is effected by using these machines. A person entirely unused to sowing by hand can use either machine with perfect success.

They are warranted to give perfect satisfaction, and to save their cost in less time than any farm implement yet introduced. They are substantially built, and with ordinary care will last many years.

D. H. GOODELL & CO.,

SOLE MANUFACTURERS.

Antrim, New Hampshire.

The unprecedented success of this Seeder the past year is without parallel in the history of agricultural implements. It has probably received more first premiums at large fairs in the year 1869, than was ever awarded to any other machine, of any name or nature in one year.

It received the first premium at the great fair held at St. Louis, and at the New England fair held at Portland, Maine, and at the New York, Maryland, North Carolina, Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Mississippi, and California State Fairs, and at multitudes of smaller fairs all over the country.

We warrant the hand machine to sow Fifty Acres of Wheat in Ten Hours, and the horse power machine to sow One Hundred and Twenty Acres in the same time, and the work to be done with greater precision and accuracy than can be done by agy other means whatever.

We might append hundreds of certificates, speaking its praise in the highest terms.

The following, from one of the most worthy citizens of Athens County, Ohio.

We take pleasure in publishing such certificates, as we know it to be genuine.

EDITOR.

ATHENS, ATHENS Co., O., August 10, 1859.

DR. C. W. ROBACK,

Dear Sir:—Permit me to say in relation to your Scandinavian Blood Pills and Blood Purifier, that I have used several boxes and bottles, and have found their effects on my system to be all that is claimed for them in your advertisements. I have also seen the effects of your Pills upon a child four or five years old, in expelling worms from the bowels.—One dose given the child, confined to the bed, and apparently very sick, caused the worms to come away from it in great numbers, and they were found crawling and scattered all about. The child thus relieved recovered immediately, and is now well and hearty.

Yours, &c.

JOSEPH HERROLD.

Additions have been made to Presbyterian and Methodist churches since the beginning of the present year. Last Sunday Bro. Williams took into the Presbyterian church thirty-nine members, and the Methodist church has received between fifty and sixty additions. How long the protracted meetings will continue we are not advised. Bro. Lynch of the M. E. Church, we are told, took on probation one man who has recently been a liquor seller, and we hope he may have the grace and persistency to be faithful to his vows in favor of a better life.

Linen collars and cuffs the latest styles at Ricks.'

It was announced by diminutive posters and programmes that some theatrical company was to perform East Lynne here on Monday night, but our people saw nothing of it. In the modern affected style of writing it was an hallucination.

Dr. Samuel Underhill, for many years a prominent citizen of Massillon, but who left here in 1835, and now makes his home in Illinois, has been among his old friends and relatives the last ten days. For one of about three quarters of a century in years he Dr. is an active, stirring man.

It is narrated that a member of the democratic persuasion, surviving not a great distance from the state of Ohio, when the question was up as to whether a black man should become a member of one of our churches, he sagely remonstrated that if he was taken in it would be the ruin and downfall of that church. He is one of the sort that goes for a white man's heaven, and necessarily must be for a white man's t'other place—because he don't want to go where the "good niggers go," nor will he elect to mix up where the bad ones go.

COAL.—Setterlin & Hershy have taken charge of the coal mine recently worked by the late Wm. Brown, and they will occupy the same coal yard near the steam mill, that Mr. B. so well established in his life time. A fine, large specimen from their bank, weighing some 1,300 pounds, can be seen in the alley not far from Willenberg & Ertle's meat market. They expect to keep this coal, which has a good reputation among many people, and other coals for sale.

PITTSBURGH FEMALE COLLEGE.—The present term of this sterling institution will close with the Essay contest by the members of the senior class, on the evening of the 11th of March. Preparations are in progress for the closing exercises which promise to be unusually attractive and interesting.

We are pleased to learn that the term now closing is more prosperous than the corresponding one last of year, and that the prospects for the spring term, which will commence Tuesday, March 22d, are unusually flattering. Applications for the admission of boarders and day pupils are received almost daily. Though a month will elapse before the opening of the spring term, but very few vacancies are left. We trust our readers will understand that we mean what we say, when we state that persons desiring admission to the boarding department must make early application. The continued prosperity of the college, while so many schools are declining, is the best comment on its excellent managment. It richly deserves its large and widely extended patronage.

Roberts' needles at Humberger & Son's.

Our active neighbor, Bro. Clark of the Wadsworth Enterprise, gave quite an interesting abstract of Prof. Newburry's lecture or essay on the coal fields of this region of Ohio, in a late number of his spirited paper. Mr. Newburry has made geology a study, and his observations in regard to the extent of coal to be found in the region indicated are worthy of attention. He regards the abundance of this mineral as sufficient to last for coming centuries. The Enterprise also talks railroad again, and favors the idea of having our city and theirs on the line. Hope it will come some day not long hence.

Fresh arrival of choice groceries, dried and canned fruits, green gages, pine apple, peaches, canned peas, tomatoes &c. Also the celebrated sea moss farina, the new article of food so highly spoken of by the New York Independent. Remember that London's cheap cash store is the place to buy if you want to be economical.

A number of young men of this place, we are informed, have successfully organized a literary or debating association, which has been meeting in the Union school house. We hope they will not be discouraged at trifles, but persevere in their praiseworthy efforts. The Massillon Literary Association, for which we did a reasonable amount of blowing, has about blown out. There is no adequate excuse for such a result. Let us hope that the juveniles at the schoolhouse will show more pluck.

By exchanges we notice that the people in some places are taking the necessary steps to have a general celebration and jollification over the adoption of the fifteenth amendment. Especially are the colored people actively at work in the matter, as it interests them particularly. They are taking the preliminary measures here to have a demonstration, and when the matter is more fully matured a public announcement of the fact will be made so that all classes of people who favor liberty and equal rights may unite in giving expression of their approval of this grand political achievment of modern times.

MURDOCH.—This eminent Amateur Dramatic Club, is announced to give one of their choice and pleasing entertainments, at the opera house, on Saturday evening. They come well recommended by the press, wherever they have appeared. The club is composed of the leading lady and gentlemen amateur talent of Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati. We are glad that our people will have an opportunity of witnessing a performance by distinguished amateuers; so as to be enabled to contrast them with professional actors. Many of the dramatic clubs in the larger cities excel in merit the regular theatres, and our citizens have had and will have extended visits from the professionals, we hope to see the monotony broken by a liberal attendance at the Opera House on Saturday evening. The plays produced will be Chimney Corner, Handy Andy and Perfection, a lengthy and splendid bill, with variety enough to suit the tastes of all classes of amusement lovers. Whether you wish to be serious over the domestic plot of Chimney Corner, or laugh at the ludicrous blunders of Handy Andy, or pass a happy evening in a beautiful place, go to the opera house on Saturday evening. See particulars and notices of the press on programmes. Admission,—Parquette 50 cents; No Reserved Seats Gallery 25 cents. Tickets for sale at Ryder's news depot.

BAND.—Mr. King, the leader of the new band, which has just been organized in this place, accompanied by Mr. Jas. McLain, left on Thursday last for Cincinnati to purchase instruments. They returned on Saturday, bringing all the instruments along. Although we have a number of instrumental performers here, whose skill and success are worthy of imitation, still there is room for more; and the gentlemen connected with the new band are of the class which will not stop until they have achieved success.

CONNOLLY'S DRAMATIC TROUPE.—This popular troupe open in the Opera House on Monday evening next. They come to us highly recommended by the press and public wherevor they have been. Their star is "Little Nellie" who is spoken of as being a petite, handsome, well-formed body, and an accomplished artiste, who throws her whole energies into the parts she impersonates. This is the first time she has ever appeared in any cities west of Cincinnati, but has met with great success is New York, Philadelphia, Buffalo, Baltimore and in all the principal eastern cities. She is ably supported by the sterling and acknowledged artiste Mr. Robert Johnston. Mr. P. E. Connolly (who by the way is a great favorite in Massillon, who will be remembered as one of the Caroline Hayes company,) and a full stock company composed of old and acknowledged artistes. They open with the great English drama entitled the Lancashire Lass with Nellie as Ruth Kirby, and Mr. Johnston as "A party by the name of Johnson."

On Tuesday evening will present the great popular drama entitled Fanchon the Cricket, and on each succeeding evening will present an entire change of programme.

We hope to see the Opera House well filled. The prices of admission will be reduced to 75 cents for reserved seats, 50 cents for orchestra chairs and 35 cents for galleries.

Our Canton neighbors had a large and pleasant celebration on the 22d ult. Delegations were present from many neighboring cities and towns, the largest coming from Akron whose mechanics tutned out in large numbers. Prominent in the proceedings of the day were appropriate addresses by J. McSweeny, Esq., of Wooster and Mr. Toner of Canton. Considerable numbers of firemen were present, and the occasion afforded time to try the efficiency of the new water works, all of which proved satisfactory. Nothing occurred to mar the harmony and pleasures of the day.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—THE NEW COURT HOUSE.

The circumstance of the holding of the first court in the new court house, was one of so much historic interest that we sent a reporter over to the metropolis to gather up a few items that might be worthy of preserving. The day was stormy and unpleasant, but the cheerful inside of the grand edifice made everything pleasant. On Monday, the 28th ult., at 10 o'clock the bell announced the hour of opening the Court of Common Pleas had arrived. The spacious auditorium reserved for suitors and witnesses was soon filled with grand and petit jurors, witnesses, suitors and persons who came to see how the new harness would fit. Inside the bar were the lawyers, exchanging the greetings of the occasion, Massillon, Canton and Alliance being well represented, excepting that Anson Pease, Esq., of this city was not there. We regret that he is confined to his house by a severe indisposition.

When Judge Frease, who so agreeably discharges the duties of his office, took his seat on the bench, Col. S. Myer, the oldest member of the Stark County Bar in the practice of his profession, arose and said before court should open, that it seemed proper that a formal recognition of the fact that court was to be held in the new Court House should be had, and put on record, on the journals of the court to remain as an enduring monument of the action of the Bench and Bar, on taking possession of the grand edifice, henceforth to be the temple of justice, and moved that the Hon. Judge Frease preside over a meeting of the bench and bar to be held immediately. The motion was unanimously and immediately seconded, and his honor instead of opening court, found himself presiding over a meeting of the bar. A. W. Heldenbrand, Esq., clerk of the court, was made secretary, and Col. Meyer, moved the appointment of a committee of five to present such resolutions as should be suited to the occasion. The chair appointed Messrs. Meyer and Bierce, of Canton; McSweeney, of Wooster; Folger, of Massillon; and Laughlin, of Alliance; and on motion of Mr. Folger the meeting adjourned until 2 o'clock P. M., at which hour the meeting reassembled in the court room, and Col. Meyer made the following report, which was adopted.

The committee appointed at the meeting of the bench and bar, and other officers of the court, to report a preamble and resolutions appropriate to the occasion of opening the new courthouse to the purposes of justice, beg leave to report as follows:

WHEREAS, Taking possession of this stately edifice for the purposes contemplated by its builders, the people of the county of Stark who have cheerfully borne great sacrifices to aid in its construction, it is meet and proper that the bench and bar with the various officers of the court, who are called upon to exercise their respective functions within its sacred precincts now appropriately and solemnly dedicate the same to the administration of justice; therefore,

Resolved, That his honor, Judge Frease, on behalf of the bench and bar and various officers of the court, formally dedicate the same as a temple of justice, where a ready redress may be found for every wrong, and where the cherished rights of personal liberty, personal security, and private property will ever be sacredly enforced and secured; while now formally throwing open its portals for the administration of even handed justice.

Resolved, That the Court be prayed to cause the proceedings of this meeting, followed by the respective names of the members of the bench and bar, and officers of the court, to be spread upon the journals as a perpetual memorial of the dedication of the new court house. By the committee:

S. MEYER, Chairman.

Pending the motion to adopt Col. Meyer addressed the meeting at length and in the most happy style. Although our reporter took full notes we are unable for want of room to give the speeches, as we woul prefer. He was followed by Mr. Folger in a rapid sketch of the early settlement of the west side of the county, the early judges and members of the bar, and gave his recollection of being in Canton in 1816, when the old court house was finished. Messrs. Bierce and McSweeny also addressed the meeting. The speech of the latter gentleman eliciting at the close, earnest applause. The meeting adjourned, and Judge Frease opened court and said the proceedings just had were of a character to entitle them to a prominent place on the historic page, and that they would be entered upon the journal of the court. There was evidently a dislike to proceed with business, when Mr. Folger said he thought that a fitting finale to what had been done would be an adjournment, he therefore moved that the court adjourn until Tuesday morning at 8½ o'clock. The court pausaking of the general feeling adjourned "by the first intention."

On Tuesday morning court met, the dockets were called and the usual routine of the first day's business gone through with. On the second trial docket the case of Rosenbury vs. Long was ready and the respective counsel. Messrs Meyer of Canton and Stallcup of Alliance for the plaintiff, and Lynch of Canton and McSweeny of Wooster have the honor of trying the first case in the new Court House.

Sarsaparillian RESOLVENT.

POISONED BLOOD.

When the blood becomes poisoned by the presence of or excess of BILE, UREA, CARBONIC ACID, and the excrementious excretions of the SKIN;—SORES, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, SPOTS, ULCERS, and HUMORS of all kinds break out on the surface.

Dr. Radway's Sarsaparillian Resolvent,

When the blood is in this condition, should be taken alternately with RADWAY'S PILLS. The indication of Cure is to free the blood from the presence of these poisons, and restore the functions of the Liver, Skin, Lungs, Kidneys, Bowels, to their proper duties, this effected, which RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT, aided with Radway's Pills, will soon secure a Cure will be the result.

A BAD SKIN.—Spots, Morphew, Sores, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Tetters, are caused by impurities of the Blood, Checked Perspiration, Sluggish Circulation of the Blood in the excreting vessels of the Skin. One or two doses of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT will rid the skin from these visitants and insure all a beautiful, clear complexion.

UTERINE TROUBLES.—Prolapsus, Uteri, Falling of the Womb, Ulcers, Tumors, Sores, cured by SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT.

Ladies suffering from Chronic Leucorrhœa, Weakness or Irritation of the Bladder and Urinary Passage, Difficulty of Passing Urine, &c., will be relieved by a few doses of RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT, and cured by a few bottles.

PARALYSIS CURED.

DENNISVILLE, Harrison Co., Ohio, May 12th, 1869.

Messrs. RADWAY & CO.,

GENTLEMEN—The RESOLVENT has effected a cure in a very severe case, that of a Mrs. L. in old Johnston in this neighborhood, she was confined to her bed and had lost the use of her legs;—four bottles of the RESOLVENT has restored her, and last Sunday she was able to attend church. The demand for the RESOLVENT has increased, and we deem it advisable to order in time.

Yours truly, R. PITTIS & SON.

SARSAPARILLIAN.

So quick is RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN or RENOVATING RESOLVENT in entering into the circulation that it may be detected in the urine, sweat, and blood in ten minutes after it has been taken.

A Remedy so quick in entering into the circulation and communicating its curative properties as RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN supplies a want that has ever existed.

RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN or RENOVATING RESOLVENT furnishes positive evidence of its qualities and fruitful efficacy in curing persons considered Impotent and Barren who have since married and had children.

STOP THE WASTE OF LIFE!

RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT will stop the waste of the life-fluid that in so many persons follows a discharge of water through the urethra. It is a positive cure for Spermatorrhœa, Nightly Emissions, &c.

SYPHILOID ULCERS,

Sores of all kinds, Tumors, Cancers, Sore Heads, Sores in the Tongue, in the Mouth, in the Glands of the Throat, cured by RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN.

IMPOTENCY.

The best evidence we have of the powerful Purifying Tonic and Fruitful properties of RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT is that it has cured persons who were verging on Imbecility and Insanity through Self Abuse, with continued drains of the seminal fluid, and were cured by the Resolvent, when prepared under the old process in 1859, who have married and have children now living. A few bottles will restore the vigor of life.

VIGOR OF LIFE RESTORED

Persons who, from Youthful abuse, disease, or injuries, suffer from paralysis or weakness in the secreting vessels of the genital organs will be cured by RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT.

THE TRUE

THEORY OF PURGATION

APPLIED TO THE

Liver, Kidneys, Skin, STOMACH & BOWELS.

DR. RADWAY'S PERFECT PURGATIVE PILLS,

Perfectly Tasteless,

ELEGANTLY COATED.

MATERIA MEDICA contains, in its repertoire, many purgative and cathartic agents that, for ordinary purposes, opens the bowels, and through what is called a "peristaltic" movement, purge from the alimentary canal the feces and bile in all. Such agents, for the purpose of cure, or removal of any settled disease, are utterly useless.

Dr. RADWAY has completed one of the most essential discoveries in medical chemistry—in the combination of vegetable substances, for the purposes of a PURGATIVE, APERIANT, COUNTER-IRRITANT, ALTERATIVE PILL, that can be taken or administered with the absolute certainty of securing THOROUGH EXPULSION OF ALL DECAYED AND DECOMPOSING Elements of the human body, and also safe to take in the most malignant of Eruptive Fevers. In cases where the mucous membranes of the internal viscera are suffering from Ulceration, Inflammation, or from

Gastric, Bilary, Pancreatic Complaints,

DR. RADWAY'S PILLS

Supply the only Vegetable substitute for

CALOMEL OR MERCURY.

In RADWAY'S PILLS you have one medicine that will secure quicker, more thorough and better results than will be given in from three or more different prescriptions of the medical practitioner. As a proof of this —You are seized with a Bilious attack! Doctor prescribes Blue Pills or Calomel next, some Diastic Alcetic Pill or Powders to work off the effects of the Blue Pill; this prostrates you, and a tonic is next given, or a gentle aperient, whereas ONE DOSE OF RADWAY'S PILLS will do all the work that the three or more prescriptions are given for, without running any risk from mercurializing or salivating the system.

RADWAY'S PILLS.

In RADWAY'S PILLS, the true principle of purgation is secured—not alone to the office of dismissing the feces and excrements from the bowels but those humors that are checked or stopped in their passage through the Skin, Kidneys, Lungs, and all excreting and secreting tunnels; for it these excrementious secretions belonging to the skin, liver, lungs, kidneys, are interrupted in their escape, they become products of decay and decomposition, and must be purged from the living body through their proper channels; hence the purgative qualities of RADWAY'S PILLS extend to the secretions of the SKIN, KIDNEYS, LIVER, &c, whereas not one of the advertised Pills claim to act beyond the bowels.

How to Take Radway's Pills.

THEIR DAILY USE.

In doses of one or two pills, by all persons of a full habit or body, subject to giddiness, rush of blood to the head, palpitation of the heart, and all those subject to fits, will not only keep the blood from becoming corrupted or clogged up in the blood vessels, but will equalize its circulation, and prevent sudden attacks of appoplexy, disease of the heart, congestion. Persons who will take one of those pills every day will not suffer from Headaches, Dizziness, Hysterics, Fainting Spells, Pains around the Heart, and a hundred other disagreeable symptoms.

DYSPEPSIA.

One of RADWAY'S PILLS, two or three hours before dinner, is an daily, will keep the system free from DYSPEPSIA, INDIGESTION, CONSTIPATION, COSTIVENESS, &c.

Bear in Mind,

RADWAY'S PILLS are the only purgative that will secure an alterative, diuretic, sudorific, aperient and tonic influence.

They are the only vegetable substitutes for Calomel or Mercury.

They promote the secretion of bile and withdraw it from the circulation.

They assist, through their nutritious properties, the chyme and chyle, and gastric juices in the process of digestion.

They are Elegantly Coated with Gum, Perfectly Tasteless, and free from Smell.

PRICE, Twenty-Five Cents per Box, or Five Boxes for One Dollar. Always ask for RADWAY'S PILLS, and see that the letters D. R. R. are on one side of label, and the words Radway's Regulators on the other. Sold by all Druggists and General Store Keepers, and at DR. RADWAY'S Medical Office, 87 Maiden Lane, New York.

Special Notices.

The Season and its Dangers.

The human body is chiefly composed of tissues and fibres as sensitive to every change in the condition of the atmosphere as the most delicate electrometer, or the quicksilver in a barometer tube.

The stomach, the skin, the nerves, the lungs, and the excretory organs are especially liable to be effected by these variations, and the best defence against their disastrous tendency is to keep the digestive machinery, which feeds and nourishes the whole system, in good working order.

If the stomach is week or disordered neither the blood nor the bile can be in a healthy state, and upon the fitness of these two important fluids for the offices assigned to them by nature, and the regularity of their flow, health in a great measure depends.

When the air is heavily laden with chilling vapors, as it often is at this season of the year, the digestion should be an object of peculiar care. If it is weak and languid, the whole physical structure will be enervated. If it is vigorous, the entir corganization will be strong to resist the untoward and depressing influence of a damp and vitiated atmosphere.

A pure and powerful tonic is therefore especially needed as a safeguard against the diseases most common in the spring, and Hostetter's Stomach Bitters being the most wholesome and potent medicine of the class at present known, a course of it is particularly advisable at this period of the year. The stomach will thereby be toned and strengthened, the liver and bowels regulated, the nervous system braced up, and nature put in a state of active defence against the miasma which superinduces intermittent and remittent fevers, rheumatisms, nervous debilty, headache, hypochondria and other complaints which are apt to assail the untoned and unfortified organizations. The body is strengthened without exciting the brain, and consequently no unpleasant reaction follows its reviving and renovating operation.

"Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cents."

Thousands of children die annually of croup. Now, mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of Dr. Tobias' Venetian Liniment in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 22 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of croup when my liniment was used; but hundreds of cures have been reported to me, and many state if it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for cuts, burns, headache, toothache, sore throat, swellings, mumps, colic diarrhœa dysentery, spasms, old sores and pains in the limbs, back and chest. No one once tries it who is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by the druggists and storekeepers in the United States. Depot, 10 Park Place, N. Y.

Brandreth's Pills.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used as long as any disease affects any of the organs of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, coroner and justice of the peace, Hastings on the Hudson, says Brandreth's Pills cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1869.

Dr. Turner of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended Brandreth's Pills as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of all their qualities.

C. F. GALTON'S DYSPEPSIA REMEDY.

In offering this remedy to the public, we feel confident that every statement we make in regard to its curative properties will be fully verified by all who avail themselves of it. The prescription has been used in this city nearly ten years, and has never failed to effect a permanent cure whenever used in accordance with the directions, and the patient has had sufficient strength of mind to abstain from rich and indigestible food for a short time. In case of Heartburn, Waterbrash, Constipation, and Nervous Headache, arising from imperfect digestion, and all ailments which are produced from an abuse of that important organ, the stomach, it will afford permanent relief.

As an evidence that our statements can be fully relied upon, we refer the reader to the certificates below:

"For a number of years I was greatly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and although my stomach craved food it would immediately reject it, should I eat anything, no matter how small the quantity. I was frequently compelled to leave the table without being able to take any nourishment. In a short time I became very much reduced in flesh, and was so weak that I was unable and unfit to attend to my business. My mind was in no better condition than my body, as I was continually oppressed with lassitude and depression of spirits. I tried all the patent medicines and prescriptions that I heard of, and some of those afforded me temporary relief, but in a short time I relapsed into my former condition.

"While suffering in this manner I heard of C. F. Galton's Dyspepsia Remedy, and concluded to try it. I had taken it but a short time when I began to feel relief, and continuing to take it, I soon could partake of my meals without any disagreeable feeling either while at the table or afterwards, and gained flesh rapidly. It is now nearly two years since, and I have continued free from anything like a return of the Dyspepsia—I can therefore recommend it to any one suffering in like manner.

"Respectfully yours, ANDREW J. NICHOLSON.
"PITTSBURGH, March 20, 1869."

"This is to certify, that during the early part of the summer of 1868 my wife was much troubled with Dyspepsia. She had a severe pain in her side, her appetite was variable, and she became quite sallow. After having used two bottles of C. F. Galton's Dyspepsia Remedy, her appetite became good, she was relieved from the severe pain in her side, and her complexion became good again, all of which I attribute to the use of C. F. Galton's Dyspepsia Remedy, and I have recommended it to all my friends and acquaintances. All that I can do to make its wonderful properties known, you can rest assured will be done. JAMES A. SMITH.
"PITTSBURGH, PA."

If you are suffering do not hesitate to buy a bottle of C. F. Galton's Dyspepsia Remedy, and avail yourself of its curative properties.

The Medical Properties Possessed By

BELTZHOOVER'S

Dyspeptic Bitters

Are fully attested by the certificates of well known gentlemen who have tested their virtues. Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Ague, General debility, and similar diseases are totally eradicated from the system by their use, while as a blood purifier and appetizer, they are unapproachable.

Dr S Beltzhoover, Scully & Co., the proprietors of these bitters, are manufacturing them extensively at their establishment, No. 77 Third avenue, Pittsburgh, and are prepared to fill all orders that may be sent to them.

At this season of the year the human system is generally in a debilitated condition, and a tonic is necessary for the preservation of health. The Dyspeptic bitters are strongly recommended for their tonical virtues, and many persons are deriving great benefit from their use. These bitters are the best in the market, and are being generally adopted by our citizens.

A Radical Revolution

Has been accomplished in hair dyes. The horrible compounds containing Lead, Salt and Sulphur are discarded. The leading chemists implore the public not to use them, and Prof Chilton, whose reputation is second to that of no analytical chemists in America, hys recommended as a perfectly innocuous article, which may be used without fear. Remember, it is the only one that has been analyzed and found wholesome. Its effects are instantaneous, and the color it imparts natural.

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye

Christadoro's Hair Preservative, as a dressing, acts like a charm on the hair after dyeing. Try it.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER

RESTORES GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL COLOR, PROMOTES ITS GROWTH! AND IS A SPLENDID DRESSING. TRY ONE BOTTLE AND THICKEN UP THE THIN LOCKS!

Is the only perfected and scientifically prepared preparation of its kind ever offered to the public, and has no competitor in merit. By its use GRAY HAIR is soon restored to its original youthful color and brilliancy, which is so much admired by all. Persons whose hair is thin or falling out will, by the use of our Renewer, soon see its good effects, as, by its tonic and stimulating properties the hair glands will be incited and the hair grow thick and strong again. In cases of Baldness it will create a new growth unless the follicles are destroyed. It is cooling, and allays all itching and irritation of the scalp. It does not stain the skin as do dyes, but makes the scalp white and clean. As a DRESSING it is the best and most economical preparation in the world, as its effects last so much longer. Send for our Treatise on the hair, free to all, by mail.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine.

To Consumptives.

The advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affliction and that dread disease, consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers his means of cure. To all who desire it he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge) with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for consumption, asthma, bronchitis, &c. The object of the advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable; and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing. Parties wishing the prescription will please address Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburg, Kings Co. N Y.—307 1y

IN SCHOOL DAYS.

BY JOHN G. WHITTIER.

Still sits the school house by the road,
A ragged beggar sunning;
Around it still the sumachs grow,
And blackberry vines are running

Within, the master's desk is seen,
Deep-scarred by raps official;
The warping floor, the battered seats,
The jack knife's carved initial:

The charcoal frescoes on the wall;
Its door's worn sill betraying
The feet, that creeping slow to school,
Went storming out to playing!

Long years ago a winter's sun
Shone over it at setting;
Lit up its western window-panes,
And low eaves' icy fretting.

It touched the tangled golden curls,
And brown eyes full of grieving,
Of one who still her steps delayed
When all the school were leaving.

For near her stood the little boy
Her childish favor singled,
His cap pulled low upon a face
Where pride and shame were mingled.

Pushing with restless feet the snow,
To right and left he lingered,
As restlessly her tiny hand
The blue-checked apron fingered.

He saw her lift her eyes; he felt
The soft hand's light caressing,
And heard the tremble of her voice,
As it a fault confessing

"I am sorry that I spelt the word:
I hate to go above you,
Because," the brown eyes lower fell—
"Because, you see, I love you!"

Still memory to a gray-haired man
That sweet child-face is showing,
Dear girl! the grasses on her grave
Have forty years been growing!

He lives to learn, in life's hard school,
How few who pass above him
Lament the triumph, and his loss,
Like her—because they love him.

A learned doctor referring to tight lacing avers that it is a positive benefit, inasmuch as it kills all the foolish girls and leaves all the wise ones to grow up to be women.

DEATH OF "FATHER KEEP."—Rev. John Keep, who has been identified with the religious and educational interests of the Western Reserve for thirty-eight years, died at his residence in Oberlin, last Friday at the ripe age of 90 years. He was of the purest and best of men, and his death will be universally regretted, though his days of active usefulness were long since passed.—Elyria Democrat.

A boy, about twelve years old, lost his grandfather, and on going to the graveyard in a carriage with his parents, had to pass the school he attended. His schoolmates, who were out playing, stood by the road to watch the carriage pass, when they were accosted by his shouting from the carriage: 'Don't you wish your grandfather would die, so that you could have a ride?' It is needless to state that he was jerked back in the carriage seat rather abruptly.

GOOD JOKE.—Dr. Elijah Bibby Wright, in passing a house in this county, observed a peculiar chimney, unfinished, and it attracted his attention. A clergyman asked some children, "Why do we say, in the Lord's prayer, 'Who art in heaven,' since God is everywhere?" He saw a little drummer boy who looked as if he could give an answer, and turned to him for it: "Well, little soldier, what say you?" "Because it's headquarters."

A little girl, who had been visiting the family of a neighbor, hearing them speak of her father as a widower, on her return home addressed him thus: 'Pa, are you a widower?'

'Yes, my child. Don't you know your mother's dead?'

'Why, yes, I knew mother was dead; but you always told me you were a New Yorker."

MRS. ALLEN'S

Hair Restorer & Zylobalsamum

Are so uniformly grateful and beneficial, that they are with justice called the natural strengtheners of the human hair. They are two entirely separate and distinct preparations, not to be used together at one time.

Mrs. Allen's Hair Restorer

Never fails to satisfy the most refined and cultivated. A guarantee goes with every bottle, that it will quickly restore gray or white hair to its original youthful beauty, gloss and color; after its use a few times the hair will grow thicker and stronger. It will stop its falling and induce a healthy and luxuriant growth. It is an exquisite hair dressing, agreeable, harmless and healthy. Entirely different from most other preparations for the hair, its composition and ingredients are nourishing, giving life and vigor to the Roots.

Mrs. Allen's Zylobalsamum

This exquisite preparation is free from any sediment, and is a toilet treasure. The urgent want of a simple Hair Dressing, for the youth of both sexes, first induced the manufacture of the Zylobalsamum, and the sale of it is perfectly immense, not only in this country, but in Europe.

EXTRACTS FROM A FEW LETTERS.

"Your Zylobalsamum is used by every member, young and old, of our family, and we consider it invaluable. Should any gray hairs appear, we shall try your Hair Restorer, which we hear very highly spoken of."

"Father and mother use your Hair Restorer, and are delighted with it. It soon restored their gray locks to their youthful color, but daughters and son still find in the Zylobalsamum all their hair requires."

From the Principal of one of our large Female Seminaries: "Your Zylobalsamum has been used for many years by myself and family, and is the favorite among our young ladies."

$30 Hinkley Knitting Machine. $30

The most perfect machine yet invented. Will widen and narrow, turn a heel, or point the toe. It will knit plain or ribbed. It will knit stockings, drawers, shirts, hoods, comforters, mittens. It is cheap simple and durable. It sets up its own work, uses but one needle, and requires no adjusting whatever. It will do the same work that the Lamb machine will do, and costs less than half as much, and has not the tenth part of the machinery to get out of order. Circulars and samples mailed free on application. Agents wanted. All machines guaranteed.

This is no patent medicine humbug, gotten up to dupe the ignorant and credulous, nor is it represented as being "composed of rare and precious substances brought from the four corners of the earth, carried seven times across the Great Desert of Sahara on the backs of fourteen camels, and brought across the Atlantic Ocean on two Ships." It is a simple, mild, soothing Remedy, a perfect Specific for Catarrh and "Cold in the head," also for offensive Breath, Loss or Impairment of the Sense of smell, Taste or Hearing, Watering or Weak Eyes, Pain or Pressure in the Head, when caused, as they all not unfrequently are, by the violence of Catarrh.

We offer in good faith, a standing Reward of $500 for a case of Catarrh that we cannot cure
